Description :

PDF-7e677 | In 1926, Alexander Calder (1898–1976) moved from New York to Paris and began to use time and motion as "materials" for animating line and space. Calder's years in Paris—an understudied part of the artist's career—is the focus of this marvelous publication. A team of international scholars discusses Calder's many innovations of this period, chief among them his abstract, motorized, an... Alexander Calder: The Paris Years, 1926-1933 (Whitney Museum of American Art)
